Chapter 13

Debtor.

NOTICE OF RENEWED OBJECTION TO CONFIRMATION OF PLAN AND MOTION TO DISMISS

TO: All parties entitled to notice pursuant to LOCAL RULE 9013-3.

1. Jasmine Z. Keller, Standing Chapter 13 Trustee (the "Trustee"), by and through the undersigned counsel, moves the court for the relief requested below and gives notice of hearing herewith.

2. NOTE: CONTESTED MATTERS ONLY THAT WERE ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED TO BE HEARD BEFORE CHIEF JUDGE KISHEL ON SEPTEMBER 23, 2004, ARE CONTINUED FOR HEARING TO OCTOBER 28, 2004. A hearing on this motion will be held at 10:30 a.m. on October 28, 2004 in Courtroom 228B, U.S. Courthouse, 316 North Robert Street, St. Paul, Minnesota or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard.

3. Any response to this motion must be filed and delivered not later than 10:30 a.m. on October 27, 2004, which is 24 hours before the time set for hearing, or filed and served by mail not later than August 25, 2004, which is three business days before the hearing date. UNLESS A RESPONSE OPPOSING THE MOTION IS TIMELY FILED, THE COURT MAY GRANT THE MOTION WITHOUT A HEARING.

4. This court has jurisdiction over this motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, FED. R. BANKR. P. 5005, and LOCAL RULE 1070-1. The proceeding is a core proceeding. The petition commencing this case was filed on June 18, 2004. The case is now pending in this court.

5. This motion arises under 11 U.S.C. §§ 1322 & 1325 and FED. R. BANKR. P. 3015 and LOCAL RULES 3015-1. Movant requests relief with respect to denial of confirmation of the Plan dated August 24, 2004 and for dismissal of the case.

6. In response to the Trustee's objection to confirmation, the Debtor filed a Chapter 13 Plan dated August 24, 2004 (the "Plan"). The Plan provides for payments of $1,600 per month for 1 month, then 59 additional payments of $2,800 per month, for a total contribution of $166,800. The Plan would allow for distribution on account of estimated nonpriority unsecured claims of approximately $202,555.83, said amounts estimated at the time of filing. The claims bar date for general unsecured creditors expires on October 12, 2004. As of the date of this objection, the proposed return to unsecured creditors appears to be no more than 7%.

7. To date, the Debtor has paid the Trustee $1,600, but has failed to make the August payment due under the Plan, and is delinquent under the terms of the Plan.

8. The Debtor's Plan proposes to pay the following claims: Attorneys' fees, $1,250; Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Priority Claim, $38,088.55; Minnesota Department of Revenue ("MDR") Priority Claim, $6,932; CIT Group Secured Claim for pre-petition mortgage arrearages, $43,177; IRS Secured Claim, $37,500; Washington County Property Taxes for $14,140; Trustee's Fees, $9,441.51 (6%); and, $14,847.79 to general unsecured creditors.

9. Among other things, Schedule J of the Debtor's petition provides for monthly mortgage payments of $3,330 on the mortgages securing the Debtor's homestead. Based upon the petition and schedules, the household consists of the Debtor and his non-filing spouse. The Debtor proposes to continue paying an automobile lease payment of $480 per month, and to continue paying $500 per month on student loans.

10. The Trustee renews her objection to confirmation of the Plan on the grounds that the Plan does not devote all of the Debtor's projected disposable income to payments under the plan. 11 U.S.C. § 1325(b)(1). A debtor under chapter 13 should contribute all disposable income to the debtor's plan. In re Sitarz, 150 B.R. 710, 718 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1993). In re McDaniel, 126 B.R. 782, 784 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1991). "Disposable income" includes all of a debtor's income which is "not reasonably necessary to be expended" by the debtor. 11 U.S.C. § 1325(b)(2). "Reasonably necessary to be expended" does not necessarily mean that such expenses should be sufficient to maintain the debtor's former lifestyle, or to continue a pattern of "excessive consumption of nonessentials or inordinately high expenditures for purchases of necessities." Sitarz, 150 B.R. at 718. McDaniel, 126 B.R. at 784.

11. It remains the Trustee's position that the Debtor's insistence on continuing to pay a monthly mortgage expense of $3,330 for a household consisting of the Debtor and his non-filing spouse is excessive, particularly in light of the fact that the Debtor has failed to pay his federal and state tax obligations over a number of years, and, according to Schedule F, incurred a large student loan obligation while failing to do so.

12. On information available to the Trustee from the petition, schedules, statements, and testimony at the § 341 Meeting, it appears the Debtor has additional income or excessive expenses, the amount of which is disposable income and must be contributed to the chapter 13 plan.

13. In some cases, failure of a debtor to contribute all disposable income to a chapter 13 plan, thereby failing a "best efforts" test, demonstrates a lack of good faith as required by § 1325(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code and may be cause for dismissal. In re Cordes, 147 B.R. 498 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1992).

14. In the alternative, the Debtor has not shown that the proposed Plan is feasible. No documentary evidence has been provided as to a currently existing source of additional funds for the payment increases beginning in Year 2 of the Plan. It is the Trustee's position that permitting the Debtor to proceed with the proposed budget on a mere representation that higher payments will occur without a clear showing of feasibility simply contributes to further delay prejudicial to the interests of creditors. Confirmation of the Plan should be denied, and the case dismissed. The Trustee's prior objection on the grounds of feasibility appears to have been proven by the Debtor, as he is now delinquent in his payments under the Plan.

15. If necessary, the Trustee reserves the right to call a member of her staff and the Debtor to testify as to the matters alleged in this motion.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee requests entry of an order as follows:

- a. Denying confirmation of the Debtor's Plan;
- b. Dismissing the Chapter 13 case; and,
- c. Granting such other and further relief the Court deems equitable and just.

Chapter 13

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF OBJECTION TO CONFIRMATION

FACTS

The facts supporting the Trustee's renewed objection are summarized in the accompanying motion and will not be repeated here. The Trustee also relies on the representations made by the Debtor in his Schedules.

LEGAL DISCUSSION

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1325(b)(1), a Debtor must contribute all of his disposable income to payments under a proposed plan of reorganization. Such contribution should be determined with respect to the need to treat creditors equitably, and not necessarily based upon a debtor's pre-filing lifestyle. In re Sitarz, 150 B.R. 710, 718 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1993). In re McDaniel, 126 B.R. 782, 784 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1991). Where, as here, it is evident from the schedules that the monthly expenses of the Debtor are unreasonable and excessive rather than objectively reasonable as required by 11 U.S.C. § 1325(2)(A), the Plan fails to comply with the Statute and should not be confirmed.

The Trustee submits that it is inappropriate to divert $3,330 to housing expenses for two people under circumstances where the Debtor appears to have financed such a lifestyle by avoiding his responsibilities to the state and federal governments. It is equally inappropriate to allow the Debtor to divert an additional $480 in lease payments and $500 in student loan payments apparently incurred while the Debtor failed to keep current on his tax and mortgage obligations. Essentially, if the proposed budget is determined to be appropriate, the Debtor will be allowed to divert a monthly total of $4,310 per month to personal expenses while paying $1,600, $2,350, and $3,600 per month in Plan payments over the life of the Plan.

The proposed increases in payments in later years of the Plan appear to be based upon nothing more than the Debtor's hope to increase them, without documented specific means to do so. It is becoming clearer that the Plan is feasible, and the case should be dismissed for delay prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1325(a)(6).

For the reasons stated herein, the Trustee respectfully requests that confirmation of the Debtor's proposed Plan be denied, that the case be dismissed, and for such other relief as the Court determines just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted:
